

Teva Education Manager

Hazon works to create healthier and more sustainable communities in the Jewish world and beyond. We're the largest dedicated environmental organization in the American Jewish community. In aggregate we're seeking to shift the nature of what it means to be Jewish in the 21st century – enabling and encouraging Jewish people to have an impact in the world and transforming Jewish life in the process. We are based in New York City and the Isabella Freedman Jewish Retreat Center in Falls Village CT. We also have offices in Denver, Boulder, Detroit, and San Diego.

Teva works to fundamentally transform Jewish education through experiential learning that fosters sustainability through the lenses of ecology, food, and place-based learning.

We are seeking an Education Manager who will oversee the implementation of Teva's educational programming. We are looking for a creative, detail-oriented, and hard-working person to join the Teva team, based at the Isabella Freedman Jewish Retreat Center in Falls Village, CT.

Teva programming is two-fold: we run experiential educational programming for students, and we hire and train a cohort of Jewish environmental educators to teach these programs. We are seeking an Education Manager who will oversee the implementation of both aspects of Teva's educational programming. The Education Manager will work as part of an intimate, year-round Teva Staff Team of four, within a larger organizational team.

Responsibilities include

- Recruit, train, and support the Teva educational staff cohort
- Organize weekly staff and program schedules
- Manage, revise and innovate curricula for educational programs and staff trainings
- Manage all aspects of educational programming, including staffing, site set-up, curriculum and community social dynamics
- Manage all program supplies: inventory, maintenance, ordering

Qualifications

- Commitment to Teva's mission and vision
- Demonstrated skill-in, and enthusiasm for, working with children
- Desire to teach about Judaism, ecology, and environmental issues in an experiential outdoor setting
- Excellent people and communication skills
- Background in writing ideal but not required
- Ability to work both independently and collaboratively as part of an interdependent team
- Excellent organizational and management skills

Key Skills

- We're looking for someone who works effectively in a high-energy, creative environment.
- Resourceful. You should be a quick learner, with good judgment and strong problem-solving skills.
- Positive attitude, including a sense of humor and grace under pressure.
- Flexibility; ability to adapt to unexpected changes in circumstances and schedules.
- Other specialty skills/knowledge are a plus (music, crafts, drama, wilderness skills, cooking, gardening, storytelling, group building, juggling, unicycling, etc.)

Compensation and Benefits

- Salary commensurate with experience, including benefits package.
- Room and board provided at Isabella Freedman Jewish Retreat Center
 - During program sessions, meals are provided in the dining hall, which features organic produce from the site's farm and a diverse array of farm-to-table style food
- Free attendance at select weekend and holiday programming at Isabella Freedman Jewish Retreat Center
- Professional development and networking opportunities throughout the year
- Participation in a vibrant ecologically-based Jewish community

How to Apply
