

In celebration of the life and work of Martin Luther King, Jr.

The KAM Isaiah Israel Congregation Social Justice Committee presents our fourth annual MLK Food Justice and Sustainability Weekend Program

“Shmita: Food Security and Sustainable Design in the Sabbatical Year and Beyond”

January 18-20, 2013

Weekend Highlights:

Friday, January 18, 7:30 p.m.

Shabbat Service – Devorah Brous, Founding Director of Netiya, Los Angeles, will speak on “Seeds of Change from Torah to Permaculture: Moving Toward Sustainable Food Security”

Saturday, January 19, 4:00 – 6:00 p.m., reception follows

A Community Design Workshop. Expert growers and planners will, with input from the audience and community partners, lay out a half-acre urban farm for a South Side site. Designing for sustainable food security will be the panel’s objective.

Workshop Leader: Robert Nevel

Designers: Kitt Healy, Mitch Yaciw, Michael Thompson, Ken Dunn, Elan Margulies

Sunday, January 20, 10:30 a.m. – 3:45 p.m.

Workshops led by garden constructors, material suppliers, environmentalists, and urban farmers from such well-known organizations as Urban Worm Girl, Bike-a-Bee, Counter Culture Coffee, and Lake Street Landscape Supply.

All events are at KAMII, free of charge and open to the public.
