

JEWISH INSPIRATION. SUSTAINABLE COMMUNITIES.

Local Food

Community Supported Agriculture (CSA)

The Greater Philadelphia area has six Hazon CSA communities. Find the pick-up spot closest to you or open a new chapter in your neighborhood.

hazon.org/csa

Help Plan the 2nd Annual Hazon Philadelphia Food Festival

Join an exciting team of local foodies and inspired volunteers to organize our second annual Philadelphia Food Festival in the Fall of 2014.

hazon.org/phillyfoodfestival

Hazon Food Conference & New Year's Eve Party

DECEMBER 29, 2013 - JANUARY 1, 2014

Join rabbis, farmers, nutritionists, and foodies for four days of inspiring conversations, eating, and celebration. Registration is open.

hazon.org/foodconference

Implement a Hazon Food Audit in Your Institution

Hazon offers free tools, resources and practical suggestions for strengthening your community by integrating food in ways that are Jewishly-informed, pedagogically-open and ethically focused.

hazon.org/foodguide

How to Get Involved with HAZON PHILADELPHIA

Creating a Healthier and More Sustainable Jewish Community

Environmental Bike Rides

Join us to ride for sustainable food systems, renew Jewish life, and have a great time!

NEW YORK RIDE: Retreat at Isabella Freedman and ride through the Berkshires and into New York City over Labor Day Weekend. hazon.org/nyride

ISRAEL RIDE: One-week ride from Jerusalem to Eilat. Cycling for peace, partnership, and the environment. hazon.org/israelride

GOLDEN GATE RIDE: Ride from Marin County to San Francisco over Memorial Day Weekend. hazon.org/ggride

Help organize a Hazon Philadelphia-Area Bike Ride!

For 2014, Hazon is developing a one-day environmental bike ride through the scenic areas around Philadelphia. You can take part in planning the newest annual event in the Philly Jewish community calendar. For more information, email cassie.pena@hazon.org

Inspired Learning

Shtetl Skills Workshop Series: Hazon is partnering with Jewish Farm School to continue their sustainability skills workshops in West Philadelphia—helping to revive the traditions of Jewish homesteading. jewishfarmschool.org/shtetl

Shabbat & Holiday Resources: Use Hazon's resources to celebrate sustainable holidays and shabbat. hazon.org/resources

Visit Our Food Blog: Read, blog, or comment on Hazon's award-winning food blog, The Jew and the Carrot jcarrot.org

hazon.org/philly

877.537.6286

HAZON PHILADELPHIA IS GROWING. If you are interested in getting involved with the new Jewish Food Movement, contact Hazon Philadelphia staff member cassie.pena@hazon.org.

DONATE TO HAZON PHILADELPHIA. Support our local work and help create a healthier and more sustainable Jewish community in Philadelphia.