4:00–5:00 PM
Beautify Our Space
Arts & Crafts

Seder means “order”. There is an order in the way we tell the story and there is an order to how each part of the story is represented by a particular food. We will set the table and add our own personal touches to our seder.

5:00–6:00 PM
Kids’ Dinner
Great Hall

Dinner will be late late late. Join us in the Great Hall for Dinner. It’s a good night to be a kid because you will have your own Kids’ Buffet Line!

6:00–7:30 PM
What Would You Place on Your Camel’s’ Back?
With Rebbetzin Bailey Braun
Arts & Crafts

Imagine you were living in Egypt and you had just a few moments to pack a bag for your desert journey. You didn’t know if this trip would last a week, a year or forty years! What kind of things would you pack to remember your home and the people you love the most? What would you bring to protect yourself from the weather? What toys or games or books would you bring to keep you busy and not bored? What would you bring so you could keep learning and growing? Bring the bag that you packed from home and share your special items with the group. We can’t wait to hear and see what you have brought!

7:30–9:00 PM

9:30–10:30 AM

Paper Making
Arts & Crafts

As we learn from our tradition, we have a responsibility to care for trees and to plant trees for the future. Recycled papermaking is a way to make new paper without needing to harvest new trees. In what ways does Judaism compare the Torah to trees? In what ways can Judaism be compared to a tree?

9:30 AM–12:30 PM

Building Homes for Wood Ducks and Bluebirds
Arts & Crafts

The Wood Duck nests in trees near water. After hatching, the ducklings jump down from the nest tree and make their way to water. The mother calls them to her, but does not help them in any way. The ducklings may jump from heights of over 50 feet without injury. Proper holes for them are few and far between so let's help out the Wood Duck population by building boxes for females to nest in.

12:30–2:00 PM

Lunch Dining Hall

2:00–3:00 PM

Game Show!

Arts & Crafts

Are you good at fooling your friends? Can you tell when someone is trying to fool you? Come play our version of To Tell The Truth (your parent has heard of it) and see how good you are at being a lie detector. Ages 10+
